TJ CAWLEY FILES FOR MORRISVILLE MAYOR Councilman Calls for a Better Morrisville Future

Morrisville, NC – July 10, 2017 – Morrisville Town Councilman TJ Cawley filed papers today to seek election to become Morrisville Mayor in the town’s November 7 election. For the past four years, TJ Cawley has served on the Morrisville Town Council, advocating for better transportation, fiscal responsibility, balanced growth and environmental protection.

“Four years ago, I was honored to be elected to the Morrisville Town Council,” Mr. Cawley said. “I’ve seen the missed opportunities for our community and I believe that we need a change in leadership to make a better future for Morrisville. I am a Dad, a community volunteer and an advocate for the citizens of Morrisville. If elected as Morrisville’s Mayor, I will continue to advocate for citizens, not for campaign donors or special interests. It’s time that Morrisville had a full-time Mayor who can get things done.”

Originally from Larchmont, New York, TJ has lived in Morrisville for 10 years and has served as a Town Council member since 2013. A true public servant, TJ has volunteered in many schools and served on community, state and national boards and advisory commissions. TJ is a graduate of the University of Virginia and retired from a Finance position in a Triangle Pharmaceutical Research firm. TJ is married to Kathy and has 3 children.
