TJ CAWLEY NAMED TO YOUTH THRIVE BOARD Morrisville Mayoral Candidate Continues Service to Schools, Youth

Morrisville, NC – August 21, 2017 – Morrisville Town Councilman and candidate for Mayor TJ Cawley has been named to the board of directors of Youth Thrive, a Wake county collaborative for people and organizations who serve youth (<http://www.youth-thrive.org/>). The appointment recognizes TJ's ongoing commitment to local schools and how those align with many of his other volunteer efforts, including the Health and Well Being Committee of the Western Regional Community Advisory Committee.

"As a father of three, I am honored to join this group of forward-looking individuals who work to foster and maintain a sustainable community partnership that will help all young people in Wake County become thriving adults," Mr. Cawley said. "I've volunteered in schools for many years, and this represents a new opportunity to serve the youth of our community."

TJ also recently received his certification for Youth Mental Health First Aid, completing training to provide help to young people experiencing mental health problems such as depression, anxiety disorders, psychosis and substance use disorders.

Originally from New York, TJ has lived in Morrisville for 10 years and has served as a Town Council member since 2013. TJ is married to Kathy and has 3 children.
